St. Mary's Catholic Church

Fredericksburg Texas

“Next to the Church, the tabernacle of the living God, is the cemetery, the earthly home of the departed”

Archbishop John Ireland

Preface

Ever since the Sacred Body of our Crucified Savior was reverently laid in the tomb, there to await the hour of its glorious Resurrection, the Church has been most solicitous to surround the burial of those who hope to rise with Christ with an atmosphere of deep Christian faith and profound reverence. In the Mass for the Dead and burial prayers, the Church gives voice to her belief in the Christian Doctrines of the Resurrection of the Body, the Communion of Saints, and the Life Everlasting; but as a further seal and symbol of that faith she sets apart and solemnly blesses the place in which the bodies of her faithful departed await the day of Resurrection.

In the very earliest days, Mother Church found it necessary to make rules and regulations which would protect the sacred places and the relics laid therein. She could not and would not allow anything within the holy precincts which would desecrate them, lessen their beauty, or dishonor the dead.

To insure the sacred character of St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery in accord with the mind and traditional practice of the Church, and to establish and maintain good order, the following rules and regulations are in effect.

Plot holders should consider these rules carefully. By doing so, they are cooperating in making St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery the kind of cemetery we desire for our dead.

Particular attention is called to the sections pertaining to change of address¹ and change of ownership brought about by the death of the plot holder². These changes should be reported to the cemetery office immediately.
